Award-Winning Canadian Multi-Instrumentalist, Danny Michel, to Perform in Kelowna

(Kelowna, BC) Danny Michel is an award-winning Canadian multi-instrumentalist of significant talent. After all, it takes some musician to earn praise from David Bowie.

If you were to attach a genre to Michel's work, you could select from rock, pop, folk, world or even classical, such is the diversity of his sound.

Michel's own self-described musical A.D.D. has kept his music fresh for decades. His thoughtful lyrics and charming performances have earned a devoted fan base, multiple nominations for JUNOs, The Polaris Prize, CBC's "Heart Of Gold", and most recently winning the CFMA's "Producer of the Year" and "Oliver Schroder Pushing the Boundaries" awards.

But Danny considers his career highlights to be the unique real-life moments like performing for Jane Goodall's 85th birthday party, touring with Stuart Mclean and working with charities close to his heart.

On February 20, 2020, Michel is bringing his unique brand of music to Kelowna's Mary Irwin Theatre at the Rotary Centre for the Arts. This show follows a sold-out gig at the same venue in 2012 and a sold-out performance at Lake Country's Creekside Theatre in 2018.

Karma Lacoff, the Theatre Programming Coordinator for the Rotary Centre for the Arts, is delighted to be bringing Michel back to Kelowna:

"Danny is extremely talented and really underrated. He's the sort of artist where you find yourself asking "why don't more people know about this guy?" I know he has some local fans already, and I'm sure he is going to make a few more at our February show. I can't wait to see Danny hit the stage once more at the Mary Irwin Theatre."

Described by the Toronto Star (among others) "as one of this country's undiscovered musical treasures...", Michel is vocal in fighting for musicians' rights and the environment.

Advance tickets for Michel's February 20, 2020, show at downtown Kelowna's Mary Irwin Theatre are $34 for adults and $26 for students and can be purchased HERE. Door tickets, if available, will be an additional $3. In the words of Lacoff, tickets to the concert make a "fabulous Christmas gift!"

You can learn more about Danny Michel via his official website.

The Rotary Centre for the Arts respectfully acknowledges that it is situated on the unceded, traditional territory of the syilx (Okanagan) people.
