Rotary Centre for the Arts Celebrates a Virtual New Year's Eve with the Ron James Comedy Show

(Kelowna, B.C.) - Downtown Kelowna's Rotary Centre for the Arts (RCA) is celebrating a virtual New Year's Eve with Canadian award-winning comedian Ron James. Ron James - Live from My Living Room: Hindsight is 2020 will be available to view on December 31st at 5 pm PST. The RCA continues to find ways to host or feature events that support the performing arts during COVID-19 and bring arts and culture to the Kelowna community.

Loved Canadian comedian Ron James is back where he belongs: in front of a live audience. After selling out theatres across the country for over 25 years with his marathon, side-splitting, and kinetically charged performances, Ron is now pioneering the virtual comedy scene. The man of "a million words and a million laughs" is on a mission to unite Canadians and help us laugh our way into 2021.

"We invite you to laugh away 2020 and usher in a new fresh year with Ron James this New Year's Eve. A stand-up comedy show like you've never seen before, this intimate, interactive, and shared experience showcases Ron's hysterical and unique comedic flair, uninhibited. Pull up an easy chair and step into Ron's living room, as he takes you on a breath-taking roller coaster ride that cuts a wide swath through contemporary culture with his razor-sharp wit, uncompromising standards and unique, poetically-honed delivery", explains Colleen Fitzpatrick, Executive Director at the Rotary Centre for the Arts.

Canada's #1 touring comedian rides the 'Corona Coaster' that puts 2020 into oblivion where it belongs. Just as he blazed a trail playing theatres from one end of our dominion to the other, this time he ventures into a virtual tour coming to you straight from his living room. Featuring new material, Ron promises to mine maximum laughs from our Year of the Plague. So, pour yourself a drink, grab a seat on the couch and laugh away the Curse of COVID before the Martians invade...because you just know that's coming next.

Tickets for Ron James – Live from my Living Room: Hindsight is 2020 are $30.00 Cdn (no fees or surcharges) and are on sale now at www.ronjames.ca. Showtime is 5:00 pm (PST) but logging on early is highly recommended. Proceeds from the show help support the Rotary Centre for the Arts and ticket-buyers are asked to specify that they were sent by the Rotary Centre for the Arts.
