Rotary Centre for the Arts Announces Winter Creative Programs Following Strong Fall Demand

(Kelowna, BC) - Creativity is thriving in Kelowna! Following a successful fall season that saw most programs sell out and additional classes introduced to meet demand, the Rotary Centre for the Arts (RCA) is launching its Winter 2027 lineup of hands-on arts programs. Registration opens Tuesday, October 27, offering new opportunities for the community to learn, create, and connect.

“The response to our fall programs has been wonderful to see,” says Colleen Fitzpatrick, Executive Director of the Rotary Centre for the Arts. “People are looking for opportunities to step away from their screens, learn something new, and connect through creativity. We've seen that enthusiasm firsthand, and we're excited to carry that momentum into the new year.”

The winter lineup brings together a variety of creative experiences, from drawing, painting, and mixed media to traditional crafts, acting, and performance. Designed for different interests and experience levels, RCA programs offer opportunities to develop skills, explore artistic expression, and connect with others.

2027 Winter Programs:
