RCA Presents Launches Full 2025-2026 Season: General Tickets Now Live, Members Save More

(Kelowna, BC) - The Rotary Centre for the Arts (RCA) is thrilled to unveil the RCA Presents 2025/2026 season lineup, featuring an exciting mix of standout performances in live music, comedy, theatre, and dance. Taking place in the intimate and iconic Mary Irwin Theatre, this signature series offers something for every artistic appetite.

“At the RCA, we believe that our performance series is a vital way to champion artists and energize the cultural life of Kelowna,” says Colleen Fitzpatrick, Executive Director. “RCA Presents is more than just a lineup of shows, it’s our commitment to providing diversity, opportunity, and visibility for both local and touring artists whose work sparks conversation, meaning, and connection in our community.”

From concerts and stand-up to boundary-pushing theatrical productions and dance showcases, the new season promises a rich and diverse cultural experience in the heart of Kelowna’s Cultural District. This season’s highlights include Play Dead by Montreal’s People Watching Collective, one of the most innovative and genre-defying contemporary circus shows in recent years, as well as stand-up performances by acclaimed comedian Charlie Demers. The season also proudly features Indigenous artists DerRic Starlight (award-winning comedian, puppeteer) and Dallas Arcand, a four-time world champion hoop dancer. Rudresh Mahanthappa, the Director of Jazz at Princeton University and Guggenheim Fellow, performs with his Hero Trio, and renowned dancer Jose Navas performs his solo work, AVES. Another anticipated performance includes Chloe Davidson (of Under the Rocks), a local fan-favourite album release, and many more remarkable shows.

“We’re incredibly proud of this season’s lineup,” says Andrew Stauffer, Theatre Programming Director of the Rotary Centre for the Arts. “It reflects our commitment to presenting exceptional live performance experiences that inspire and connect and the vibrancy of our arts community.”

General tickets for RCA Presents are now available. RCA Theatre Members received exclusive early access ahead of today’s release and it’s not too late to join. By becoming a member, you’ll still enjoy great perks like 20% off tickets, partner discounts, and more throughout the season.
