Rotary Centre for the Arts Adds Canadian Legend Barney Bentall to RCA Presents 2025–2026 Season

(Kelowna, BC) - The Rotary Centre for the Arts is thrilled to announce an exciting addition to the already stacked RCA Presents 2025–2026 season: Canadian legend Barney Bentall. Known as the frontman of Barney Bentall and the Legendary Hearts, Bentall brings his storied career to the Mary Irwin Theatre in an intimate solo performance on Thursday, April 9, 2026. Featuring songs, heartfelt stories from the ranch and the road, and rich visuals, this special evening promises a moving and unforgettable musical journey.

Theatre Programming Director, Andrew Stauffer, says, “We’re excited to present this unique concert featuring songs and storytelling by the beloved Barney Bentall, with the addition of stunning visual projections. This intimate performance will be unlike any Bentall show our audience has ever seen.”

Over the course of his career, Barney has earned a Juno Award for Most Promising Group of the Year, multiple Juno nominations, Canadian Country Music Association awards, and induction into both the Canadian Music Hall of Fame and the BC Entertainment Hall of Fame. These accolades reflect his contributions across decades of work in rock, country, and folk, not just his solo material, but his full journey through Canada’s musical landscape.
