Rotary Centre for the Arts Presents Anthony D'Alessandro Quartet for an Unforgettable Night of Jazz

(Kelowna, BC) - The Rotary Centre for the Arts (RCA) is excited to announce the final show of the RCA Presents 2024-2025 season, the Anthony D'Alessandro Quartet, performing on Wednesday, June 25, 2025. Hailed for his dynamic swing and impeccable technique, Toronto-based pianist, composer, and bandleader Anthony D'Alessandro is making waves in the jazz world with his fresh yet deeply rooted approach to the genre.

Praised by WholeNote Magazine for his "scintillating technique," D'Alessandro has captivated audiences at some of the world's most prestigious jazz venues, including the Montreal International Jazz Festival, Smalls Jazz Club (NYC), and Koerner Hall (Toronto). His performances blend groove, rhythm, and an undeniable sense of swing, making him a standout force in contemporary jazz.

Theatre Programming Director, Andrew Stauffer, says, "D'Alessandro's compositions draw on a variety of genres and styles within jazz, including calypso, swing, and waltzes. The quartet executes these works wonderfully. There is something here for all jazz lovers."

D'Alessandro leads the Anthony D'Alessandro Quartet, featuring an all-star lineup of Benny Benack III, Ernesto Cervini, Jonathan Chapman, and guest Zachary Griffin. His debut album, Searchin' (2024), has received glowing reviews, with Jersey Jazz Magazine calling it a "gem of an album" and Paris Move praising it as an "uplifting and feel-good jazz record." His composition Tune for Monty was also selected for CBC Music's Songs You Need to Hear.

Don't miss the opportunity to experience one of Canada's most exciting rising jazz stars live at the Rotary Centre for the Arts.
