Rotary Centre for the Arts Celebrates the Holidays with Two Live Performances in the Mary Irwin Theatre

(Kelowna, BC) - The Rotary Centre for the Arts (RCA) is excited to mark the festive season with two high-energy live performances in the Mary Irwin Theatre. On December 17, the RCA and comedian Mike Delamont present a special performance of Delamont's widely popular one-man show, God is a Scottish Drag Queen Christmas Special. And on December 22 and 23, Interior-based Celtic folk band Cod Gone Wild bring their Neighbourhood Rounds Christmas tour to the Mary Irwin Theatre.

Colleen Fitzpatrick, Executive Director of the Rotary Centre for the Arts, invites the community to reconnect this holiday season through art and creativity: "Come celebrate the holidays with the RCA. We look forward to welcoming you and yours to the Mary Irwin Theatre this December. There's no better way to connect with friends and family at the holidays than over live music, comedy, and storytelling. The RCA is thrilled to provide all three."

"Our RCA Presents series," adds Karma Lacoфф Nieoczym, Theatre Bookings Coordinator at the RCA, "aims to bring world-class live performances to the Central Okanagan. Mike Delamont and Cod Gone Wild fit that bill perfectly. These are two acts sure to bring joy into your family's holiday season."

As a stand-up comedian, Mike Delamont has appeared on CBC's The Debaters & Laugh Out Loud, SiriusXM's Top Comic, Halifax Comedy Festival, Winnipeg Comedy Festival, Just For Laughs, and at the world famous Comedy Store in Los Angeles. He is best known for his one-man series, God Is A Scottish Drag Queen, which has sold out major theatres across North America for the past decade.

Featuring the talents of Andrew Mercer, Susan Aylard, Sean Bray, Dan Fogarty, and David Mihal, Cod Gone Wild weaves a tapestry of tales evoking a nostalgic experience of days gone by. Their unique style, rich harmonies, and upbeat stage presence will keep any party going all night long.
