RCA Presents Halloween Howl with Norman Foote, a Family Matinee Musical

Kelowna, BC – The Rotary Centre for the Arts is excited to present Halloween Howl with children's performer Norman Foote on Sunday, October 22 at 2:00 pm. Embark on a unique Halloween adventure with Juno and WCMA award-winning artist, Norman Foote, and the talented choir from Kelowna's Anne McClymont Elementary School.

The performance promises an array of elements, including props, wacky humour, clever hooks, wordplay, engaging stories, and comedy. Norman Foote's renowned ability to connect with young audiences will create an unforgettable experience for children and parents alike. In a matinee show designed for the entire family, Foote invites audiences to embrace individuality and celebrate the power of their own voices.

"As an arts centre that thrives on providing entertainment for all ages, we are thrilled to bring Halloween Howl with Norman Foote to the Mary Irwin Theatre," says Colleen Fitzpatrick, Executive Director of the RCA. "It promises to bring immense joy to our community and uphold the tradition of spreading happiness among families within the RCA's welcoming walls and a chance for families to dress up for Halloween together for a safe, indoor event."

Norman Foote is no stranger to accolades, having earned both Juno and WCMA awards for his outstanding contributions to children's entertainment. This show, accompanied by the talented voices of Anne McClymont Elementary School's choir, will undoubtedly provide an entertaining and enriching experience for all attendees.

As part of the Halloween festivities, audience members are encouraged to don their favourite costumes and immerse themselves in the joyous atmosphere. The matinee show ensures a family-friendly environment, making it the perfect outing for parents and their little ones.

This event marks an opportunity for families to come together, enjoy quality entertainment, and be inspired by the uplifting message of self-expression and celebrating one's unique voice. Norman Foote's charismatic stage presence and the delightful contributions of the choir promise an afternoon filled with laughter, music, and wholesome fun.

Don't miss out on this one-of-a-kind Halloween experience. Secure your tickets now for a matinee show that promises to be a highlight of the season.

Tickets are $25 for adults and $20 for kids 12 and under. To purchase tickets and further information, please visit the Rotary Centre for the Arts website or contact the box office.
